Guess what! We will now warranty your screen protector even in it's not ours! So if your wife, hubby, son, daughter, ex-wife's wife, wait a second....well anyway, if they cracked their screen protector we will still warranty it for them! We don't care! We just want your device protected!

NOTE – warranty must be done direct through our website, resellers are not authorized to warranty our product in store.

Well since you are reading this you must need a warranty replacement. Just email us at warranty@znitro.com and you will receive a 14 page email explaining how to warranty you product. Just kidding! We aren't those other guys....but seriously just email us at warranty@znitro.com with a selfie, if you choose to be brave, and we'll send you a coupon code to buy any new screen protector for any device you want! You don't even need to get the same one you had!

Here is our pricing for processing your warranty. Processing includes making the screen protector, packaging it, hugging the package, putting it in a mailer for the good ol' post office to pick up, one more hug as we sadly say goodbye and BOOM you have a new screen protector.
